

EDITORIAL

In this January edition of Promundo News, we provide an overview of the activities conducted by Promundo at the end of 2012 and beginning of 2013.

We also present the main findings of the IMAGES study (International Men and Gender Equality Survey), developed in the Democratic Republic of Congo in 2012, which reveal alarming data on sexual and gender-based violence in this country: 48% of the men interviewed stated that they had perpetrated some sort of physical violence against their partners, while 53% of the women surveyed claimed that they had been victims of violence at the hands of their partners.

> Continue reading

INTERVIEW

Henny Slegh

Henny Slegh is Promundo's representative in the Great Lakes region of Africa and is the IMAGES coordinator in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

In this moving account, she presents us with some reflections on the challenges of performing fieldwork in conflict settings.

> Read the full interview

NEWS

Article

Sexual violence is more than just a weapon of war in the Democratic Republic of Congo

Initial findings from the International Men and Gender Equality Survey (IMAGES) reveal that sexual violence is just as prevalent in homes as it is in conflict in North Kivu, eastern Democratic Republic of Congo. A new study by Promundo and the Sonke Gender Justice...

> Continue reading

News

Promundo develops campaign to promote gender equality in the workplace with Petrobras' employees

Promundo developed a campaign to promote gender equality in the workplace in IEComerj, a Petrobras' enterprise in Itaboraí, called "Isso é Coisa de Homem. Isso é coisa de mulher" ["That's men's stuff, that's women's stuff"]. The campaign reached around....

> Continue reading

News

Promundo will conduct research on perceptions of children's security in four communities in Rio de Janeiro

In January, Promundo started the recruiting process and community articulation for conducting the qualitative research for the project, "Engajando pais para a redução da violência contra crianças.

PROMUNDO'S AGENDA

UNESCO approved the project of Promundo-Brazil and Conexão G, which includes research on the LGBT's access to health services.

Promundo-Brazil sold 5,700 copies of the game "Em seu lugar" and the DVD "Once Upon a Family" to the Education Foundation of the government of the state of São Paulo. The material will be distributed by the Foundation in the public schools of São Paulo.

Promundo-US presented the MenCare Campaign as a strategy of drawing attention to the importance of involving men in maternal health in the Conference on Maternal Health, Tanzania, January 12-18th.

Promundo-US will work with its partner organizations in Burundi, Rwanda and the Democratic Republic of Congo to finalize the details of the intervention of the project on Prevention of Sexual and Gender-based violence,

> Continue reading

..

News

Promundo conducts training with Fathers' Groups in Sri Lanka

Promundo-US was invited by World Vision to adapt the methodology of Program P with Father's Groups, in Sri Lanka. The primary aim of the project, and Program P, is to prevent violence against women and children and to promote the funded by the World Bank.

READ MORE

RSS

Promundo-Brazil participated in the Meeting of Experts on the Prevention of Violence Against Women and Girls in the School Setting in the Region of Latin America and Caribe, in Mexico, January 22-25th.

Promundo-Brazil will participate in a meeting in Amsterdam, from 29 January to 2 February, to plan activities related to the project funded by the Dutch government, which includes the development of activities of the programs H (Men), M (Women) and P (Fatherhood) in South Africa, Brazil, Rwanda and Indonesia.

This is a publication

Address: 2121 Decatur Place,
NW, Washington, DC 20008,
United States of America

Phone: +1 (202) 588 0061
Fax: +1 (202) 588 0063
E-mail: contactdc@promundo.org.br

Developed by metara comunicação